

5 YEARS WORKING ON (H)ABIAN 2030

GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP EDUCATION ALLIANCES

(H)ABIAN

PLATFORMA
LOCAL & REGIONAL INTERNATIONAL ACTION

15 MARCH
BIZKAIA ARETOA
Abandoibarra Etorb. Bilbo, Bizkaia

by muxotepotolobat

INSCRIPTION: <https://forms.gle/tmWFQr9ZuWfwF3p98>

9:00 - 9:30 OFFICIAL OPENING

5 YEARS (H)ABIAN 2030

A time of celebration for representatives of public institutions promoting (H)ABIAN 2030, where the potentialities of (H)ABIAN 2030 will be rediscovered and its achievements will be celebrated, alongside the challenges still faced by (H)ABIAN 2030.

Presented by: Paul Ortega, Director of the Basque Agency for Development Cooperation.

José Antonio Rodríguez Ranz, Deputy Minister of Human Rights, Memory and Cooperation.

Teresa Laespada, Regional Deputy of Employment, Social Inclusion and Equality.

Ernesto Sainz, Chair of Euskal Fundoa.

9:30 - 11:00 OPENING CONFERENCE

EDUCATION FOR SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION HERE AND NOW

Complex and convulsive times such as those we are now living through can be a great opportunity to initiate important changes which allow us to make progress towards a fairer and more sustainable society with greater solidarity.

Moderated by: Lur Fernández, Plataforma.

Nélida Zaitegi, teacher and pedagogue. She began her professional career in 1967 as a teacher in public education, also becoming a head teacher, Education inspector and head of innovation programmes of the Department of Education of the Basque Government.

11:00 - 11:30 Coffee break

11:30 - 13:15

EXPERIENCES IN THE FIELD OF FORMAL EDUCATION

Presentation of different experiences involving public institutions and civil society in the field of formal education. From the European level to the most local.

Moderated by: Eva Rodríguez Salcedo, San Jose Jesuitak Durango.

Primary Education and the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals: cooperation between local authorities and the coordinating organisation of primary education.

Ronald van der Hijden, director of the National Board of Town Twinning Netherlands – Nicaragua.

DEAR student: Dear Student is a project to incorporate education for development and global citizenship into the formal curriculum. It builds bridges between the education administration, the education community, local governments and cooperation agents.

Luisa Iglesias Hitos, pedagogue and gender expert. Department of Territorial Development and Multilateral Programmes. FAMSÍ (Andalusian Fund of Municipalities for International Solidarity).

The Bilbao International Festival of Unseen Cinema “Film Sozialak” and Higher Secondary and Vocational Training Schools: the festival is much more than a film festival; it is a special tool to promote more inclusive, equal and sustainable societies. At present, fourteen institutions have signed collaboration agreements with the festival.

J. Carlos Vázquez Velasco, Director of the NGDO (Culture Communication Development) and of the Bilbao International Festival of Unseen Cinema “Film Sozialak”.

Tomás Maguregi Unamunzaga, Director of the Integrated Center for vocational training Iurreta.

Esther Elexgaray Cruz, Head of studies of the Integrated Center for vocational training Iurreta.

Lunch

14:30 - 16:00

SPECIFIC EDUCATION EXPERIENCES AMONG DIFFERENT AGENTS AND IN THE FIELD OF NON-FORMAL AND INFORMAL EDUCATION

Presentation of different experiences involving public institutions and civil society in the field of non-formal education. From the European level to the most local.

Moderated by: Maialen Olabe, Chair of the Youth Council of the Basque Country.

Imperceptible development cooperation: the role of art, music and creativity. In our development education activities we wanted to target the triple audience at the same time – teachers, children, their parents – at the same time introducing with development cooperation not in a direct, but gentle way, through creative activities with the help of municipal art and music schools, as well as involving NGOs and artists.

Agita Kaupuza, Adviser on EU Issues, Head of Brussels’ office of the Latvian Association of Local and Regional Governments.

Libraries and their role in education for global citizenship via Agenda 2030

Vanesa Corrales Argumanez, technician in European networks and Agenda 2030, Fons Mallorquí.

Loturak Eskola: Intercultural Camps: Reflection, dialogue and co-creation of digital narratives with migrant youth in Getxo, about their reception process in the municipality.

María Arrieta from the Moviltik association.

16:00 - 17:00

THE CHALLENGE OF MEASURING IMPACT ON EDUCATION FOR GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

One of the achievements of (H)ABIAN, while simultaneously one of the challenges of education, is measuring impact. Those who are working on this challenge share their experiences.

Moderated by: José Manuel Palacios, Department of Education.

How can we measure changes in our educational actions? A proposal under construction.

Marlen Eizaguirre Marañón, cooperation technician of the Basque Agency for Development Cooperation-eLankidetz

Collective construction experiences of follow-up and evaluation mechanisms of educational projects.

Francesca Vanoni, education for global citizenship activist and leader of the support team of the European Union's DEAR (Development Education and Awareness Raising) programme.

17:00 - 17:30 OFFICIAL CLOSING AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Beatriz Artolazabal, Minister of Equality, Justice and Social Policies.

Catering: Fundación Peñascal, Insertion Company within food sector.

Visual harvesting: Carlotta Cataldi.

by muxotepotolobat